

Catalogue for norm and standard parts with basket, CAD connection and other interfaces

- one functionality for offline and online applications
- complete and most recent overview on the whole product range
- quick and easy user interface
- interfaces for ordering, CAD data export, OCI and others
- detailed product documentary and PDF download possible
- export of customer specific prices and discounts

Intelligent product configurators for CAD data, pricelists and individuell exports

- quick choice of needed product from various possibilities
- shows fitting components to a selected product size
- by sequently calling single products, the user is guided through the systems as best as possible
- it is always possible to navigate backwards to edit already selected products
- automatically taking over the whole bill of material
- special kinds of user interfaces e.g. choice of product size from a crosstable are possible
- accessories like bolts, nuts and screws will be automatically added by the configurator and will be positioned in the CAD configuration

